

Where to Go To Get “Horsey” Stuff

1) Maryland Saddlery Consignment

439 Hockessin Corner Hockessin, Delaware 19707

(302) 235-8525

This place is great as you can get things that are new, or close to new for a fraction of the price. They sell just about everything you would need, and the staff is all active in the equine field. This is my favourite place to get stuff! Mention that you ride at Opening Number Riding Academy, and will earn points for equipment!

2) Dover Saddlery

683 Yorklyn Rd Hockessin DE 19707

302-234-8047

They have a huge selection of helmets, and the people working there all compete, own, or lease horses, so they really know what you need, and what you don't need.

3) Bartville Harness

1245 Noble Rd, Christiana, PA 17509

Amish shop that has tons of halters, lead ropes, brushes, and other “horsey” stuff at some of the best prices. They also have a small resale section of equipment and clothing. Great place to go for brushes/half chaps/ “stuff.”

4) Amazon & eBay

Sometimes the best place to go is online! Just do NOT, and I repeat DO NOT buy safety equipment via eBay. Clothing is great, and careful buying equipment.

5) Rick's Heritage Saddlery

1340 Pottstown Pike West Chester, PA 19380

800-336-3882

It may be a bit of a hike, but they have a fabulous “bargain basement” (which is really an attic) where they sell lots of second clothing (clothes that should have cost hundreds, but cost tens because they are cream instead of eggshell.) They are also THE place to go for horse equipment (saddles, bridles, etc.)

6) Bit of Britain

141 Union School Rd. Oxford, PA 19363

800-972-7985

This place is relatively close to our location, and again, all the people who work there are in the equine field. They have huge tent sales that are worth keeping an eye out for, as you can get brand spanking new stuff for reasonable prices.
